

The no-call list allows my wife and I to enjoy an evening meal together since with the list active, we get no calls at meal time. Family time together is important. Especially so at meal time as many families are seperated during meals for reasons that may be partly out of their control. The no-call list allows for many more uninterrupted family activities. Lets keep it as it is. Thank you!